

STUDENT ENDORSEMENTS FOR ELECTIONS

The following endorsements came from students who evaluated my Sanborn Regional High School Election 2004 class at the end of the semester. They have given me permission to use their names and comments.

- ★ "I have learned so much about how government and politics work, after having taken this class! It was a learning experience that I will never forget."
Joanna Karambelas

- ★ "Election 2004 was very interesting. I never learned so much about politics, especially information that is election-related. Now I feel well-informed."
Mike Adams

- ★ "The election rally was a major adrenaline rush! Acting as a candidate made the experience even more enjoyable!"
Luke Altmannsberger

- ★ "I loved this class and am so glad I signed up for it. I learned so much about the government and really got into the election. The election rally was so much fun and, at the same time, a great learning experience."
Christine Bailey

- ★ "I thoroughly enjoyed this class because before I enrolled in it, I had no political experience whatsoever. This class gave me the confidence and knowledge to participate in political conversations."
Megan Kearns

- ★ "This class was a fun, involved class that requires a team effort to be successful. It not only taught the necessities of running a quality campaign but how to be successful with the help of others."
Breck Kelley

- ★ "This class helped me understand and become more interested in the election process and how our government is run."
Colleen Kennedy

- ★ "The best thing about this class is that everyone had a role and knew what to do. Also, the rivalry between the two campaign staffs made everything more interesting."
Tom Furlong
